

Privacy Policy

Since our founding in 1904, Wesley Community Center, Inc. has been committed to maintaining the confidentiality, integrity and security of personal information entrusted to us by current and potential donors.

We have always treated personal information as confidential. When you provide personal information to the Wesley Community Center, Inc., we believe that you should be aware of our policies designed to protect the confidentiality of this information.

Personal information is protected by Wesley Community Center, Inc. in a number of important ways. All Wesley employees are subject to a strict employment policy regarding confidentiality. Wesley takes substantial precautions in seeking to ensure that our systems are secure and that they meet industry standards, including the application of firewalls for our Internet-based systems. When appropriate, Wesley employs the use of encryption technologies, user authentication systems (e.g., passwords and personal identification numbers) and access control mechanisms.

We do not use an outside service to manage our database of donor information. It is our policy that we do not provide customer names and information to any outside firms or organizations.
